Goodbye Kansas Studios wins VFX order

Goodbye Kansas Studios has won a new order from an international customer to produce visual effect ("VFX") for a TV-series and the order value amounts to 8 MSEK. Production has been initiated during the second quarter 2022 and will be completed during the third quarter 2022.

"Goodbye Kansas Studios' high-quality services continue to win significant assignments to produce VFX, and yet again we see an order from a recurring international customer. The business has developed considerably during the past year and we continue to strengthen our offer to customers by investing in our technology and creative resources," says Peter Levin, CEO of Goodbye Kansas Group.
