Thus, the preliminary outcome indicates that an additional approximately 11.2 percent will be subscribed for by guarantors.

Thomas Lundqvist, CEO of OptiCept, comments:

"I would like to start by thanking our existing shareholders for their continued trust and at the same time welcome all new shareholders who have chosen to become part of our journey. A special thank you to our long-term owners who have not only supported us through subscription commitments but also chosen to underwrite this issue – your support has been crucial to our success. OptiCept is in one of the most exciting phases in our history. In recent months and weeks, we have taken decisive steps in global expansion and established ourselves as a leading player in several key markets, something that can be read more about in the memo that we communicated on 20/11 – 2024.

The new capital from the share issue strengthens our ability to meet demand, increase production capacity and invest in innovative solutions that bring us closer to our vision – to become a leading player in sustainable food and plant technology. We are convinced that this is just the beginning. Thank you for your commitment and welcome to continue this exciting journey with us!" says Thomas Lundqvist, CEO of OptiCept Technologies.

The final outcome of the Rights Issue is expected to be announced on 28 November 2024.
