

Goobit Expands Its OTC Service

Goobit Group AB ("Goobit" or "the Company") proudly announces a strategic expansion of its Over-The-Counter (OTC) trading services under the BTCX brand, operated by the Company's subsidiary, Goobit AB. The new OTC department is specifically designed to meet the needs of individuals and businesses, facilitating transactions exceeding 150,000 SEK.

Enhanced Security and Customized Services

BTCX's expanded OTC services have been developed to offer enhanced security for clients demanding exclusive service in their financial transactions. This customization includes both technical and administrative solutions to ensure the integrity and security of each transaction phase.

For institutional clients, Goobit has designed a range of services that not only reduce exchange fees but also meet their specific trading needs and strategic goals. The objective is to optimize their transaction flows and management of crypto-assets.

"We are very excited to launch this as we see more and more large institutions entering the Bitcoin space. This expansion allows us to provide tailored solutions that meet the growing demands of our clients and reinforce our position as a leader in the crypto-asset market.", says Christian Ander, CEO of Goobit Group AB
