Castellum recruits new Head of People & Culture

Castellum has recruited Kristina Grahn Persson as its new Head of People & Culture. Kristina will take up the position on 27 January 2025, becoming part of Castellum's Executive Management.

Kristina Grahn Persson comes most recently from a similar role at Areim, and previously held several executive positions at Diös, where her responsibilities included sustainable business, digitisation and HR in Executive Management.

“Kristina has extensive experience in the property industry and organisational development. She will be a great addition to Castellum's development going forward, and she was highly appreciated as a manager at her previous workplaces. I would like to extend Kristina a warm welcome to Castellum,” says Joacim Sjöberg, Chief Executive Officer of Castellum.

Kristina Grahn Persson is looking forward to her new assignment:

“Castellum is a fantastic company with a strong position in the market, great forward momentum, and a clear strategy to achieve long-term value creation. I am pleased to be entrusted with becoming part of Castellum's continued journey, which is something I am convinced will be both exciting and enjoyable.”

Kristina replaces Hanna Brandström, who will remain in the role until the handover.
