

BeammWave AB – Invitation to Product & Technology Briefing on December 15

BeammWave AB invites shareholders and other interested parties to a Product & Technology Briefing on December 15, 2025. The event will be held adjacent to the company's office at Scheelevägen 15M in Lund. Doors open at 17:00 CET, and presentations will begin at 17:30 CET.

During the briefing, BeammWave's CEO, Stefan Svedberg, and Chairman of the Board, Svein-Egil Nielsen, will provide an update on the company's progress "from proven concept to volume products" and discuss what the upcoming 6G standard means for BeammWave. The intention is to offer deeper technical, strategic, and market insights than are typically presented in the company's shorter public updates.

Following the presentations, there will be opportunities for Q&A and informal discussions. Please note that this is an onsite event; however, a recording of the presentations will be published on BeammWave.com after the event.

Participation is free of charge, but registration is required.

Please register by sending an email to event@beammwave.com no later than December 11, 2025.
