

Städhäxan joins KEYTO Group

Städhäxan becomes part of KEYTO Group, expanding and strengthening the groups offering in cleaning services in Sweden.

Founded in 2010, Städhäxan provides cleaning services to both private and business customers with its operations based in Linköping. The partnership reinforces KEYTO Group's position within the cleaning segment and expands its geographical presence in the region.

"Having Städhäxan join KEYTO Group is fully aligned with our strategy to grow with high-quality service companies within the home services sector. Together with Städhäxan, we will continue to develop our cleaning offering and deliver even greater value to our customers," says Magnus Agervald, CEO of KEYTO Group.

Employees and customers of Städhäxan are warmly welcomed into the KEYTO family.
