

BIMobject reaches 5 Million registered users

BIMobject has surpassed 5 million registered users globally, marking another major milestone in the company's growth. This achievement underscores the platform's increasing role in the digital transformation of the construction industry. The continued success reflects the industry's shift towards more efficient, sustainable design practices and BIMobject's commitment to enable a smarter, faster and greener building industry worldwide.

"I'm happy to announce yet another great milestone, which is an important step in strengthening our position as a world-leading provider of building product information preferred by architects, engineers, contractors, and property owners. We are happy to see a continuous inflow of new users and are also excited to keep delivering value for them and all of our existing users" comments Martin Lindh, CEO of BIMobject.

"This is a great accomplishment for our platforms and the teams behind it! I'm proud to be part of this journey and grateful to the brands and users who made it possible. This validates our dedication to putting the users' workflow first, and I'm excited for what's next" comments Annebell Vaino Boman, Product Manager of bimobject.com.
