

NOTE receives SEK 135 million order from leading Nordic defence company

NOTE has received an order worth SEK 135 million from one of its long-term customers in the defence segment. The customer is a Nordic defence company that is a market leader in its field. The deliveries include advanced printed circuit board assemblies (PCBA) with high complexity and very high requirements for quality, robustness, and delivery reliability. Production will start in 2026 and continue into 2028.

"Receiving renewed trust from a customer in this segment clearly demonstrates that the combination of our technical expertise, reliable delivery capability, and close collaboration truly makes a difference. We see strong and growing demand for advanced and dependable electronics within Security & Defence, and we are proud to be the partner customers turn to when precision and quality are business-critical," says Johannes Lind-Widestam, CEO and President of NOTE.
