

Beijer Alma's CFO to leave the company

Beijer Alma's CFO Erika Ståhl has decided to leave Beijer Alma to pursue another opportunity outside the group. She will remain in her role while the recruitment of a new CFO progresses.

The process to recruit a new CFO begins immediately.

Henrik Perbeck, CEO of Beijer Alma said: "I thank Erika for her solid contributions during her time as CFO at Beijer Alma, where we have continued to execute on our model for profitable growth and value-adding acquisitions. Erika has been an appreciated colleague and I wish her the best of luck."
