

Goobit changes the planned date for publication of the annual report

According to the financial calendar of Goobit Group AB (publ), available on the Company's website and stated in previously published reports, the annual report for the financial year 2025-05-01 to 2026-04-30 was to be published on 20 September 2026. The audit process has taken longer than planned, and the Company will therefore not be able to publish the annual report on the date stated in the financial calendar.

The Company now expects to publish the annual report no later than Wednesday, 23 September 2026.

The annual general meeting remains planned for 15 October 2026 as previously notified, and the revised publication date does not affect the Company's ability to meet the applicable deadlines ahead of the meeting.
