

Astor Group attends DALO Industry Days 2026 in Herning, Denmark

Astor Group is attending DALO Industry Days 2026 in Herning, Denmark, where representatives from across the Group are meeting with customers, partners and industry stakeholders from the Nordic and European defence sector. Throughout the exhibition, Astor Group is showcasing capabilities from across the Group that support defence, security and preparedness in an increasingly complex operational environment.

DALO Industry Days takes place on 19–20 August and is one of the largest defence industry events in the Nordic region. Organised by the Danish Ministry of Defence Acquisition and Logistics Organisation (DALO), the event brings together defence authorities, armed forces, policymakers and companies from across Europe to discuss future capabilities, procurement and international cooperation.

With European countries continuing to strengthen their defence capabilities and industrial capacity, cooperation between industry, governments and armed forces is becoming increasingly important. DALO Industry Days provides an important platform for dialogue around future requirements, technological development and closer industrial cooperation across the Nordic and European defence ecosystem.

Astor Group is represented in Herning by members of Group Management together with representatives from several of the Group's subsidiaries. The joint presence reflects the breadth of Astor Group's offering and provides an opportunity to present capabilities from across the Group while exploring new opportunities for cooperation with customers and industry partners.
