Insider transactions in SdipTech linked to incentive program

Management members of SdipTech AB (publ) have sold shares in the company. The proceeds from the transactions will be used to repay loans related to previous incentive programs and reinvested in new programs adopted by the Annual General Meeting.

In total, CEO-designate Anders Mattson, and CFO-designate Bengt Lejdström, have sold 45,000 Class B shares. At the same time, these individuals intend to subscribe for 170,000 warrants in the incentive programs TO2028 and TO2029, which were adopted by the Annual General Meeting on May 19, 2025. This increases the management members' exposure to the SdipTech share compared to before the transactions.

Holdings for SdipTech's management members are reported on the company's website and the transactions are reported in accordance with applicable regulations.
