Correction: The exercise period for warrants of series TO 8 in Chordate Medical Holding AB (publ) begins today

The press release published today on November 4, 2024, at 08:30 CET, incorrectly stated that the warrants after subscription and payment will be replaced with interim shares (IA) pending registration with the Swedish Companies Registration Office. The correct information is that no interim shares (IA) will be delivered, and that shares will be delivered as soon as the new issue is registered with the Swedish Companies Registration Office.

The full press release, updated with the correct information, follows below.

Today, November 4, 2024, the exercise period begins for warrants of series TO 8 in Chordate Medical Holding AB (publ) ("Chordate Medical" or the "Company"). The exercise period runs until November 18, 2024. Each warrant of series TO 8 entitles the holder, after recalculation carried out due to the reverse share split, to subscribe for 0.002 new share in the Company. Subscription cannot be made by part of a share, which means that 500 warrants of series TO 8 will be required for subscription of one (1) new share in the Company. The subscription price per share is SEK 23.99. If all warrants of series TO 8 are exercised, the Company will receive approximately SEK 6.1 million before issue costs. In order for warrants not to expire, the warrant holder must actively subscribe for shares no later than November 18, 2024, or alternatively, sell the warrants no later than November 14, 2024.

Complete terms and conditions for the warrants are available on the Company's website, www.chordate.com.
