

BIMObject appoints Martin Lindh as new CFO

BIMObject AB (publ) announced today that Martin Lindh is appointed Chief Financial Officer (CFO) starting 17 May 2021. Martin Lindh will replace the current CFO, Alexander Dahlquist, who is leaving the company.

Most recently, Martin Lindh was Associate Director at Polaris Private Equity, where he worked for 5 years with acquisitions and strategy development of Polaris' portfolio companies. Prior to joining Polaris, Martin's experience includes 5 years as a management consultant at McKinsey & Company, one of the world's leading strategy consulting companies, and working as an Investment Manager at SEB Asset Management.

In the role as CFO, Martin Lindh will contribute to the ongoing work to grow the company into a leading global marketplace, and to develop the company's value proposition and organisation.

"I'm very pleased to welcome Martin to BIMObject. Martin has extensive experience of international finance and acquisitions. His knowledge of business- and organisational development will also be an important asset to our continued growth.", said Carl Silbersky, CEO of BIMObject.
