Attendo opens new nursing home for older people in Kokkola, Finland

Attendo is opening Villa Puntus, a new nursing home for older people in Kokkola, Finland. Located in the Rytinmäki area, the new home will offer 50 places in modern, accessible facilities designed to provide a safe and comfortable living environment.

The nursing home is spread across two floors, each with shared living areas and a kitchen, providing opportunities for residents to spend time together and socialise. Staff are on site around the clock to provide care and support based on residents' individual needs.

"Our ambition is to create a safe and welcoming home together with our team, where residents feel comfortable and can enjoy everyday life. We look forward to welcoming our first residents later this year," says Heidi Gül, Area Manager for North Ostrobothnia at Attendo Finland.
