

Ortivus welcomes Minni Rajj as new CFO

Ortivus is pleased to announce the appointment of Minni Rajj as the new Chief Financial Officer (CFO) at Ortivus. Minni brings more than two decades of experience in finance and management. Minni will play a central role in Ortivus' continued growth journey.

"We are thrilled to have Minni joining the Ortivus management team," says Gustaf Nordenhök, Ortivus' CEO. "Minni's extensive experience in finance and strategic business development will help Ortivus to become an even stronger partner for our clients and stakeholders."

Minni Rajj has a strong track record in business development with a focus on profitable growth, and in designing and implementing business planning, governance, as well as ensuring robust financial and operational processes.

Her experience spans both service-oriented and manufacturing companies, operating in national and international environments, including startups, small and medium-sized enterprises, and mature organisations. She has expertise in corporate governance, process optimisation, and organisational development, ensuring that financial and operational strategies align with broader business objectives.

Most recently, Minni served as Manager Operations at Tech Mahindra Sweden AB, where she oversaw service delivery to customers. She has also worked as a senior advisor at Ekan Management, providing strategic guidance and operational governance support.

"I am looking forward to getting to know the team at Ortivus and understanding the organisation's development potential so that I can provide the right support for the company's growth and profitability. With an already impressive customer base of MobiMed's efficient solutions, it presents an exciting journey into growth and new markets, and I am excited to be involved." says Minni Rajj.

Minni will join Ortivus as CFO on February 16, 2026.
