

Vimian Group AB (publ) CEO Patrik Eriksson steps down

Today, Vimian Group AB (publ) ("Vimian") announces that Patrik Eriksson steps down from his position as CEO of Vimian with immediate effect. Carl-Johan Zetterberg Boudrie, CFO of Vimian, is appointed interim CEO. The recruitment process for a new CEO will be initiated immediately.

"Vimian enjoys a strong position as a global leader in niches of animal health with significant unmet medical needs and attractive growth prospects. The potential for Vimian in the global animal health market is significant and the Board of Directors has agreed that a different leadership is in the best interest of the company and its shareholders for the long term. Focus will be on accelerating the execution of Vimian's strategic pillars of driving profitable organic and M&A driven growth, leveraging the scale and advantages of being a global group while building on the strong entrepreneurial culture in the company. The Board is confident in the company's strategy and financial targets and our ability to successfully execute on our business plans across our four segments", says Magnus Welanders, Chairman of the Board in Vimian and continues:

"On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Patrik for his contributions to Vimian's development. Under his tenure the company has delivered strong growth, entered new fast-growing market niches and completed the list change to the main market".

Additional changes to the Vimian Group executive management team

Effective today, Alireza Tajbakhsh will, in addition to his current role as Head of Vimian's Veterinary Services segment, assume interim operational responsibility for Vimian's MedTech segment. He succeeds Guy Spörri who has decided to leave the company at year-end. Furthermore, Bart Bremer, Chief People Officer, is appointed member of Vimian's executive management team.

All the above changes are effective today 17 July 2025.
