

KB Components AB has completed the acquisition of Rabugino

On March 12, 2026 KB Components AB signed an agreement to acquire all shares in Rabugino Sp. z.o.o. The closing has now taken place.

Rabugino Sp. z.o.o. was founded in 1985 and operates from Grodzisk Mazowiecki, near Warsaw in Poland. The company is primarily active in the automotive industry and works with end customers such as BMW, Volvo, Volkswagen and Audi. It is a company that has successfully won new business, creating a significant pipeline of new business entering production. The company has a turnover of approximately 80 MPLN, a workforce of around 150 employees and 31 modern injection moulding machines. Rabugino, the future KB Components Poland, will be integrated into the KB Components Europe segment and report to VP Europe (excl. Sweden), Elvis Pruckus.

Through the acquisition, KB Components expands its European and strengthens relationships with key customers in the automotive, filtration technology and consumer goods industries. By integrating Rabugino's operations, KB Components will optimize capacity utilization across its facilities and leverage synergies to improve efficiency.
