

NAVENTUS PUBLISHES UPDATED ANALYSIS OF INSPLORION FOLLOWING THE RELEASE OF THE COMPANY'S Q4-REPORT

After a stable 2022 with continued work on the hydrogen strategy, Insplorion continues to see increased interest in the hydrogen vertical after the company announced its strategic direction towards hydrogen. During the quarter the company also launched a new sensor surface for the S2 instrument in Life Science.

We repeat the motivated scenario-based value range of SEK 6 – 14 per share, with a base scenario of SEK 9 per share.
