

ENVAR GAMES' INTERNALLY DEVELOPED GAME WITCHSPIRE SURPASSES 100,000 WISHLISTS ON STEAM

Envar Games announces that Witchspire has surpassed 100,000 wishlists on Steam, a very positive sign of market interest for the internally developed game.

"It's incredible to see so much interest for our first game" says CEO Atey Ghailan. Wishlists on Steam are an indication of interest for the game, also ensuring that players are notified when the game releases in Q2 2026. Envar Games is both developing and publishing the game.

"We've received a lot of positive feedback on the Gameplay Trailer we released on the 4th of December, and are looking forward to continuing to build hype around Witchspire during 2026" continues Atey Ghailan.
