

Webrock Ventures Board Member Resigns at Own Request

Webrock Ventures AB (Nasdaq First North: WRV), the venture studio that launches and builds companies in Brazil together with successful Swedish tech companies, announces today that a board member has resigned at his own request.

According to Webrock's Articles of Association, the Board shall consist of no fewer than three and no more than eight members. Following the resignation of Ola Åstradsson, the Board will consist of two members and will therefore not meet the requirements set forth in the Articles of Association. New board member will be elected at the planned Extraordinary General Meeting on October 23 2025.

About us

Founded in 2018, Webrock Ventures is a venture studio that starts and builds companies in Brazil in partnership with successful Swedish tech companies. Brazil has over 215 million people and is one of the world's largest economies and the population is among the most digitally engaged in the world. Webrock leverages established Swedish companies' proven business models and technology to gain a head start in Brazil's fast-growing digital industry that often matures later than in Sweden. By bringing together ideas, capital, resources, and talent, Webrock acts as a co-founder, building growth companies from the ground up. With a 35-60 percent ownership stake in its portfolio companies, Webrock ensures substantial value for a limited initial investment. The company's share WRV is traded on Nasdaq First North Growth Market with Redeye AB as Certified Adviser.
