Örjan Rystedt is appointed new Regional Managing Director for Castellum West

Castellum's current Project Development Manager Örjan Rystedt will succeed Mariette Hilmersson as Regional Managing Director for Region West, and will be stationed in Gothenburg. He will take office on 1 May 2023.

"Örjan Rystedt has worked at Castellum as Project Development Manager since early 2019, and knows a great deal about the company. It is highly gratifying to be able to fill a key role like this one through internal recruitment, since it reflects the immense expertise that exists in the company. We look forward to Örjan, with his know-how and experience, continuing to develop Region West in both property management and project development," says Joacim Sjöberg, CEO of Castellum AB.

Örjan Rystedt previously worked in senior positions at companies including Skanska.

"I look forward to assuming this new role and continuing the good partnership I have with Castellum, both internally and externally, in the Gothenburg region. Region West has a competent and experienced organisation, as well as a stable and exciting property portfolio with excellent project opportunities that can be developed over many years," says Örjan Rystedt, incumbent Regional Managing Director, Castellum Region West.
