Medclair AB (publ)

Medclair has completed the merger with the subsidiary Medclair Sweden AB

Medclair AB announces that the previously announced merger with the wholly-owned subsidiary Medclair Sweden AB has now been completed. The merger is part of the company's ongoing streamlining efforts and aims to create a simpler, more cost-effective, and transparent corporate structure.

Through the merger, Medclair Sweden AB's operations have been integrated into the parent company, Medclair AB. The simplified structure results in reduced administration, lower operating costs, and more efficient internal and external reporting.

The merger also creates a clearer and more transparent corporate structure for shareholders, investors, and other stakeholders.

The merger does not affect Medclair's operations, customers, or existing business relationships.
