

CFO Johan Rydmark leaves OX2

Johan Rydmark, Chief Financial Officer, has decided to leave OX2 in April 2025.

Johan Rydmark joined OX2 as Chief Financial Officer in June 2019 and has been a member of the Group Leadership Team since then. In his position he has developed the company's corporate governance, financing strategy and finance operations.

"I want to thank Johan for his work and extraordinary contribution to the development of the OX2 we see today. His deep knowledge of financial markets and his driving force in key operative and strategic issues has added great value to the company. He has been instrumental on our growth journey to list the company on First North in 2021 and then on NASDAQ Main Market in 2022. I wish him all the best in the future," says Paul Stormoen, CEO OX2.

"It has not been an easy decision, OX2 is a great company and it has been an amazing journey. It is a highly commercial, yet value-driven, company with dedicated and skilled people committed to accelerate the access to renewable energy as well as creating value for our owners. I am proud of what we have achieved," says Johan Rydmark.

The search for a successor has been initiated and Johan Rydmark will remain with OX2 until April 2025.
