Scandion Oncology announces rescheduled publication date for Q4 and Year-end 2024 report

Scandion Oncology (Scandion), an innovative drug efflux pump inhibition company using biomodulation capabilities to revert drug resistance, today announced that the publication date for its Q4 and year-end 2024 financial report will be moved from February 26, 2025, to March 12, 2025.

The change in the publication date is due to additional time required for finalizing financial information and ensuring the accuracy of the year-end report and annual report.

The Q4 and year-end 2024 financial report will now be published on March 12, 2025, followed by a conference call for analysts and investors on March 13, 2025.
