

Fredrik Erlandsson leaves his position as SVP Corporate Communications and IR at Thule Group AB (publ)

Thule Group announces today that Fredrik Erlandsson has informed the company that he will be leaving his position as Senior Vice President Corporate Communications and Investor Relations at Thule Group AB (publ) to become responsible for group corporate communications and Investor Relations, and part of Group Management, at the energy technology company NIBE Industrier (publ).

"Fredrik has made a great contribution and has been a valued colleague during his more than 13 years at Thule Group. When Fredrik now moves to a newly established role in the group management of one of Sweden's largest companies, I want to wish him all the best and continued success. I am also happy to see in him an example of how Thule Group has contributed to developing successful leaders who take on ever greater tasks", says Mattias Ankarberg, CEO and President Thule Group and concludes "I want to thank Fredrik for his time with us, and I am confident that Thule Group is well equipped to continue our long successful journey."

Fredrik will continue in his current role during his notice period until the month of July.

Thule Group will now start a process for recruiting Fredrik's replacement.
