Management changes in Goodbye Kansas Studios

Chris Jestico has been promoted to Managing Director for Goodbye Kansas Studios. Chris has worked at Goodbye Kansas Studios since 2021 and also has significant experience from leading roles in various global VFX companies internationally, for instance ILM, MPC, DNEG, Framestore as well as production companies such as Warner Bros and New Regency. Chris also has first-hand experience from establishing production partnerships in India.

“The appointment of Chris Jestico is an important change for Goodbye Kansas Studios, as we enter the next chapter of profitable growth. Chris brings the vision, leadership skills and deep understanding of the industry that Goodbye Kansas Studios needs to achieve its ambitious goals,” says Stefan Danieli, CEO of Goodbye Kansas Group.

“It's been a joy to work with the team at Goodbye Kansas Studios over the past couple of years and I'm excited to take our operations to the next level. We will continue to evolve our services and cultivate technology to enhance creative collaboration with our clients”, says Chris Jestico, Managing Director Goodbye Kansas Studios.

Following a number of structural changes in 2023, Goodbye Kansas Group is today entirely focused on operations in its subsidiary Goodbye Kansas Studios, a leading supplier of technology-driven visual content on a global market.
