

VALUNO GROUP AB (PUBL) ANNOUNCES ORGANIZATIONAL CHANGES - CURRENT MANAGEMENT TEAM STEPPING DOWN

Valuno Group AB (publ) announces that the company's current management team is stepping down at their own request, in mutual agreement with the CEO. The organization will transition to a more streamlined and operationally focused structure, with direct reporting lines to the CEO.

The purpose of the reorganization is to shorten decision-making processes and further strengthen Valuno's ability to execute its strategic priorities in a swift and coordinated manner. During the transition period, Peter Liljeroos, Chairman of the Board and Interim CEO, will assume more direct operational responsibility for the business.

The process of defining the future organizational structure and functional setup has been initiated and will be communicated in due course. The changes have been developed in close dialogue with the management team and will be implemented in an orderly manner, with a shared understanding of the company's next phase of development.
