

Emilie Condrup appointed as board member of Eleda

Emilie Condrup has been appointed as a board member of Eleda AB. Emilie has been Deputy CEO and CEO of Eleda's platform company Akea during the period 2020–2026 and has previously held various roles within both Akea and Eleda. She has an academic background in law, construction engineering, project management, environmental engineering and entrepreneurship from the University of Gothenburg and an education in real estate brokerage from Malmö University.

In connection with Emilie Condrup being appointed as a board member, Peter Condrup is leaving Eleda's board after many years of significant contributions to the group's development. Peter Condrup has been a board member of Eleda since 2020 and is a co-founder of Eleda.

“Peter's contribution to the development of both Eleda and Akea has been invaluable. At the same time, we are very pleased to welcome Emilie to Eleda's board, where her experience and understanding of the business will support the group's governance and long-term development,” says Johan Halvardsson, Chairman of the Board of Eleda AB.
