Kollect on Demand Holding AB (publ) announces launch of new services online

Today on November 10, 2022, Kollect on Demand Holding AB (publ) (“Kollect” or “the Company”) announces the launch of a number of new services available.

The Company is delighted to report that it has introduced a number of new services for its Irish customers today. These services diversify Kollect from its traditional waste services to other household services, which include:

- Garden maintenance
- Gutter cleaning
- Pressure washing
- Window cleaning
- Septic tank removal

The business model of outsourcing to third parties has not changed.

John O’Connor, CEO comments:

“I’m very excited about the introduction of these new services. The new website which we recently launched, as well as the new back end integrations, mean that we are now in a position to easily add services and offerings to domestic and commercial customers, in an efficient manner”.
