

QleanAir announces a large order from the Swedish plastics industry

QleanAir Holding AB (publ), the premium supplier of solutions for clean indoor air, announces a large order from a company in the Swedish plastics industry. The order has an estimated value of nearly 900 TSEK and concerns a rental agreement for cabin solutions.

QleanAir announces an order to a company based in southern Sweden that manufactures sustainable and innovative packaging solutions in plastics. Our air cleaning solution will contribute to shorter smoking breaks, without the risk of exposing staff to passive smoking, and thus increased productivity.

- We are happy to be able to contribute to increasing productivity in the Swedish production industry, says Christina Lindstedt, CEO at QleanAir.

The order is a five-year lease for S30 cabins including a service contract with a performance guarantee with an estimated value of close to SEK 900 thousand. Installation will take place during Q4 2022.
