Christoffer Strömbäck appointed Head of Investor Relations and Corporate Finance at Castellum

Christoffer Strömbäck will assume his new role as Head of Investor Relations and Corporate Finance at Castellum AB in February at the latest. He has solid experience from both the banking and property sectors.

"Relations with the capital market are important for Castellum and with Christoffer Strömbäck on board we will be able to meet the market's ever-increasing demand for information while ensuring that we continue to be clear and transparent in our financial communication", says Joacim Sjöberg, CEO, Castellum AB.

Christoffer Strömbäck has solid experience of the property and capital market from Swedbank Corporate Finance, JLL Capital Markets and Fastator, where he is currently CFO.

"I have followed Castellum for many years and look forward to contributing to the company's strong development. It is inspiring to work with capital market issues during the current tumultuous times. I also share Castellum's strong commitment to sustainability in the property sector", says Christoffer Strömbäck.
