Playdigious Originals presents upcoming title Crown Gambit at Gamescom

Fragbite Group AB's (publ) ("Fragbite Group") wholly-owned subsidiary Playdigious has announced the publishing of Crown Gambit, the third game title under business unit and publishing label Playdigious Originals. The game was announced on Friday 23 August as part of the Future Games Show during Gamescom.

Crown Gambit is a tactical narrative game developed by Wild Wits Games and illustrated by reputable artist and illustrator Gobert. Crown Gambit will be released on PC via global platform Steam in 2025. A new game trailer for the game was released on Friday 23 August as part of Playdigious Originals' announcement at the Future Games Show during Gamescom, the world's largest international gaming event.

"As soon as we got the initial pitch for Crown Gambit, we were immediately seduced by the game's potential: unique artistic direction, compelling gameplay combining narrative and tactical card games, and developed by the highly passionate and professional Wild Wits Games team. The lead artist has a strong fan following which gives our marketing team an excellent foundation to work on. We have high expectations for this title and are proud to add it to the Playdigious Originals label," says Abrial Da Costa, CEO, Playdigious.

"Crown Gambit is a game that's very close to our hearts; we've got a story to tell that we're very proud of, and Gobert's art style is particularly well-suited to bring this universe to life. I'm especially happy to join forces with Playdigious, as the collaboration has been extremely fluid and they have confidence in our creative vision," says Corto Laly, Studio President, Wild Wits Games.
