WPTG Secures Exclusive Middle East Distribution Rights for Pericent Solutions

Stockholm, Sweden –2025-07-24. White Pearl Technology Group AB (WPTG: Nasdaq First North) has secured exclusive Middle East distribution rights for Pericent's software suite, including docEdge (document management) and bpmEdge (business process automation).

The partnership builds on WPTG's success deploying Pericent solutions in Africa through subsidiary Klarib. With Middle East markets for these solutions growing at 12%+ CAGR, WPTG is poised to capitalize on rising demand.

Ashley de Klerk, EVP of WPTG, commented: "Our proven track record in Africa gives us confidence in the Middle East opportunity. With our regional expertise and client relationships, we're ready to drive adoption of these transformative solutions."

Marco Marangoni, CEO of WPTG, added: "This agreement is a strategic milestone toward our Vision 2028 target of 827 MSEK revenue and >17% EBITDA margin. Pericent's high-margin solutions strengthen our portfolio and our position as the region's leading digital transformation partner."

Sanjay Sharma, CEO of Pericent, said: "This partnership accelerates enterprise digital transformation in the Middle East. Building on our Africa success, we'll deliver intelligent automation at scale, solidifying Pericent's global presence."

Following recent $2M+ contract wins, WPTG continues its growth focus in Saudi Arabia, UAE, Oman, and Egypt, combining existing enterprise relationships with high-value software expansion.
