Mårten Koshko appointed CEO of Speed Group

Mårten Koshko has been appointed CEO of Speed Group, a Ratos portfolio company, and he will assume the position as of 1 March 2027. He succeeds Per Jonasson, who has held the position of acting CEO and will remain in his role as the company's CFO.

Mårten has more than 20 years of experience in senior leadership positions within the logistics and third-party logistics (3PL) industry, including roles at Frigoscandia and PostNord TPL. Most recently, he served as CEO of Frigoscandia's Swedish logistics operations.

"Mårten's extensive experience, deep knowledge of the logistics industry and strong results-oriented approach are well aligned with the company's priorities and ambitions going forward. His proven ability to develop businesses and drive sustainable profitability makes him the right person to lead Speed. I would also like to extend my sincere thanks to Per for his valuable contributions and dedication during the period in which he has taken on the dual responsibilities of interim CEO and CFO," says Gustaf Salford, CEO of Ratos.

"I am delighted, proud and humbled by the trust placed in me to lead Speed. Speed has its roots in entrepreneurship and is characterized by a strong drive and determination, qualities that truly resonate with me and that I am committed to preserving. I look forward to working with the team to create long-term value for customers, employees and shareholders," says Mårten Koshko.
