

Report from the Annual General Meeting of Surgical Science Sweden AB (publ)

At Surgical Science Sweden AB's Annual General Meeting today, the following, amongst other things, was decided:

- To adopt the Company's and the group's income statements and balance sheets for the financial year 2022, as set out in the annual report. The Board members and the CEO were discharged from liability for the financial year 2022.
- The Board of Directors' proposal for disposition regarding the company's profit was approved. No dividend will be paid for the financial year 2022 and the funds at the disposal of the Annual General Meeting will be carried forward.
- Re-election of Board members Roland Bengtsson, Jan Bengtsson, Thomas Eklund, Henrik Falconer and Elisabeth Hansson and new election of Åsa Bredin, in accordance with the Nomination Committee's proposal. Roland Bengtsson was re-elected Chairman of the Board of Directors.
- Remuneration to Board members shall, in accordance with the Nomination Committee's proposal, be totalling SEK 1,050,000, of which SEK 300,000 to the Chairman of the Board of Directors and SEK 150,000 to each of the other Board members.
- Re-election, in accordance with the Nomination Committee's proposal, of the registered auditing company KPMG AB. The authorized public accountant Daniel Haglund will be auditor in charge.
- Approval of the Board of Directors' proposal to implement a long-term incentive program for employees in the Group and executive management in Israel. The rationale of the incentive program is e.g. to contribute to higher motivation and commitment among the employees and to retain employees. The program comprises 260,000 warrants corresponding to a dilution of 0.51 percent. To enable the incentive program, the Annual General Meeting also resolved to issue 260,000 warrants to a subsidiary and to approve transfer of these warrants to participants of the program without consideration. Each warrant entitles the holder to subscribe for one (1) new share in the company. The subscription price of the share at the time of the utilisation of the warrant shall correspond to 120 percent of the Surgical Science share's average volume-weighted closing price during the period from and including May 17, 2023 to and including May 31, 2023. The warrants can be exercised by notification of subscription for new shares during the period from and including June 15, 2026 to and including July 15, 2026.
- Authorization for the Board, for the time up until the next Annual General Meeting and on one or more occasions, to resolve on the issue of shares, corresponding in total to no more than 10 percent of the share capital.

About Surgical Science Sweden AB (publ)

One of the biggest challenges within healthcare globally is reducing injuries incurred during care. Medical education and training are key, especially as a large part of the training can now be performed outside the operating room. Surgical Science is a world leader in the development of virtual reality simulators for evidence-based training. The simulators enable surgeons and other medical specialists to train and improve their psycho-motor skills and instrument handling before entering the clinical environment. Alongside its own products, Surgical Science works with simulation solutions for medical device companies that develop instruments for clinical use, such as robotic surgery.

Surgical Science has approximately 250 employees. The company is headquartered in Gothenburg, Sweden and also has operations in Tel Aviv, Israel, as well as in Stockholm, Sweden and in Seattle and Cleveland, US. Through sales offices in the US and China as well as a global network of distributors, Surgical Science maintains a presence in most markets. Shares in Surgical Science Sweden AB (publ) are traded on Nasdaq First North Growth Market. Certified Adviser is Erik Penser Bank.
