

HAKI SAFETY'S PRESIDENT AND CEO TO LEAVE HIS POSITION IN 2027

HAKI Safety's President and CEO, Sverker Lindberg, has notified the company's Board of Directors that he intends to leave his position no later than April 2027. The process to recruit a new President and CEO will begin immediately.

Sverker Lindberg began as the President and CEO of HAKI Safety, then Midway Holding, in 2016. During his time, the Group has shifted from being a conglomerate to a focused industrial group, specialising in safety products and solutions that create safe working conditions for everyone working in challenging environments.

Thomas Widstrand, Chairman of the Board of HAKI Safety, says: "On behalf of the entire Board, I would like to express my big thanks to Sverker. The strategic shift and subsequent development that the Group has undergone under his leadership are impressive. The Group is well-positioned for the future."

Sverker Lindberg, President and CEO of HAKI Safety, says: "I would like to thank the Board and owners for their trust in me during my almost ten years in the Group. With the certainty that the company has a determined, solid and proven strategy, I now look forward to a more open role in working life."

Sverker Lindberg will continue as President and CEO of HAKI Safety until a successor is appointed, but no later than April 2027. In addition to his position in HAKI Safety, he is Chairman of the Board of Kulturen in Lund and Lagafors AB.
