

New board members join 4C North America Inc.

4C Strategies (4C), a leading global provider of solutions for exercise and military capability development, announces the appointment of three new board members to 4C North America Inc. This subsidiary is specifically dedicated to serving the defense sector in North America.

The expansion of its board follows the recent appointment (27 October 2023) of former US Army Brigadier General Guy Jones as President of the subsidiary. It aims at strengthening the North American operations and to deepen the cooperation with U.S. Department of Defense.

The new board members, who joins current board member and 4C Strategies Group CEO Magnus Bergqvist, are the following: Former US Army Lieutenant General and President and CEO of Rafael Systems Global Sustainment LLC, Joseph Anderson; Former Assistant Secretary of the US Navy, James Geurts; and Executive Vice President and Public Sector General Manager at Dun & Bradstreet Tim Solms.

"Joseph Anderson, James Geurts, and Tim Solms will provide a significant contribution to our defense operations in North America as they bring a combination of expertise within the defense industry and experience from our defense clients," says Magnus Bergqvist, CEO of 4C Strategies.
