

Candles Scandinavia CEO Viktor Garmiani Appointed President of the European Candle Manufacturers Association (ECMA)

Candles Scandinavia proudly announces that its CEO, Viktor Garmiani, has been appointed President of the European Candle Manufacturers Association (ECMA), the foremost industry organization representing candle producers across Europe.

ECMA plays a vital role in supporting the growth, regulation, and sustainability of the European candle industry. The association brings together leading manufacturers to collaborate on shared challenges, influence policy, and uphold the highest standards in product quality, environmental responsibility, and safety. As President, Viktor Garmiani will help drive ECMA's strategic agenda and represent its members in dialogue with regulatory bodies, trade partners, and industry stakeholders across Europe.

Viktor's appointment comes at a pivotal time for Candles Scandinavia, which is actively expanding its presence in the European market through both organic growth and strategic partnerships. His new leadership role at ECMA reflects not only his industry expertise but also the company's increasing ambitions to influence and engage in shaping the future of the candle sector on a broader scale.

"This is an important milestone that aligns closely with our long-term vision," said Garmiani. "As we continue to grow through strategic acquisitions and partnerships, our aim is to contribute meaningfully to the evolution of the industry — from sustainability leadership to innovation in product development and manufacturing. I look forward to collaborating with our ECMA members to help move the entire sector forward."

Headquartered in Örebro, Sweden, Candles Scandinavia has established itself as a leader in private label candle manufacturing, with a strong emphasis on sustainability, premium quality, and operational excellence. The company's growth strategy includes ongoing investments in green technologies, supply chain efficiency, and M&A activities aimed at building a robust and agile Global platform.
