

Champion Health, part of Physitrack Group, awarded Tech Startup Business of the Year at the Go:Tech awards

Champion Health, a leading workplace health platform in the UK and part of Physitrack Group, has been awarded Tech Startup Business of the Year at the Go:Tech awards. The Go:Tech awards is a major UK tech award, celebrating businesses and entrepreneurs leading the way in technology and innovation across the UK.

Champion Health was awarded Tech Startup Business of the Year at the 2022 Go:Tech awards, being recognised as the tech start-up that has put its stamp on the sector in which it operates. The Go:Tech awards is backed by Business Leader, the UK's leading media platform for high growth and scale-up businesses. The award is a testament to Champion Health's cutting-edge technology and innovative digital platform.

Champion Health Ltd is a UK-based provider of an all-in-one holistic corporate wellness platform that links proactive and interactive content for all areas of wellbeing into a sleek and seamless platform and app for employees to use anywhere, anytime. To-date, Champion Health has targeted companies with 500+ employees and plans to expand into self-service SMEs and B2C in the medium term. The company provides services globally with headquarters in the UK. In May 2022, Champion Health was acquired by Physitrack PLC.
