CEO Comments

Vicore's Phase 2b ASPIRE trial remains on track and is expected to complete enrollment in the first half of next year.

During the second quarter, Vicore continued to execute with focus, ensuring efficient site activation and enrollment for the global, randomized Phase 2b ASPIRE trial. The company has a clear path forward for the development of buloxibutid in IPF and has maintained a strong financial position to allow the company to complete this impactful trial with additional cash runway thereafter.

The ASPIRE trial was initiated after regulatory clearance in September 2024 and designed to study the change in forced vital capacity (FVC) from baseline over 52-weeks, the registrational endpoint for IPF. We remain on track to enroll the last patient into the study in the first half of 2026, as we have secured regulatory approvals in all 14 participating countries, patient enrollment is progressing as planned, and the quality of participating sites and patient engagement has been very good. We are particularly encouraged by the enthusiasm from the clinical community and the recognition of the transformative potential of buloxibutid's differentiated mechanism of action. Given the unique mechanism of this first-in-class program, buloxibutid has the potential to redefine the treatment paradigm in fibrotic lung disease - not merely slowing disease progression but potentially preserving or improving lung function.

We continue to see strong interest in the trial, supported by the limited number of programs in late-stage development for IPF and the need for more effective and better tolerated therapies. Physicians and patients are also enthusiastic about the trial because of early signal of the excellent tolerability in the Phase 2a study and the patient-friendly trial design. This bodes well for our recruitment plans heading into the second half of 2025.

With the ASPIRE trial and Phase 3 readiness activities progressing, Vicore's management team continued to attend scientific and banking conferences throughout the quarter to keep stakeholders updated on the potential of buloxibutid in IPF and Vicore's future ambitions. Vicore presented multiple oral presentations and posters at the 2025 American Thoracic Society International Conference in May, where the team had the opportunity to highlight new preclinical data supporting buloxibutid's unique mechanism of action. Toby Maher, MD, PhD, Professor of Clinical Medicine at the Keck School of Medicine of the University of Southern California, also presented further detail from the Phase 2a AIR trial evaluating buloxibutid in IPF, including a synthetic control arm analysis utilizing real world data from a large cohort of IPF patients, which provided additional support for the robust treatment effect of buloxibutid observed in the Phase 2a AIR study.

Despite the ongoing market volatility driven by continued uncertainty around US tariff policy and broader macroeconomic stability, Vicore is in a fortunate position thanks to the SEK 880 million (USD ~85 million) capital raise during the fourth quarter of 2024.

I want to thank everyone whose support has helped to bring Vicore to where we are today. I'm fortunate to be working alongside a dedicated and talented team and to be supported by shareholders and partners who share our vision and believe in our long-term ambitions. We are entering the second half of the year with strong momentum and a clear sense of purpose: to bring transformational therapies to patients suffering from severe fibrotic diseases. This mission is all the more critical given both the high unmet need that exists for this deadly disease today and the limited late-stage development pipeline.

Notes

Note 1. General information

This report covers the Swedish parent company Vicore Pharma Holding AB (publ), corporate registration number 556680-3804, and its subsidiaries Vicore Pharma AB and Vicore Pharma US Inc. The parent company is a limited liability company registered in Stockholm, Sweden. The address of the main office is Kornhamnstorg 53, 111 27 Stockholm, Sweden. The group's main operation is research and development of pharmaceutical products.

The interim report for the second quarter 2025 was approved for publication on August 22, 2025, in accordance with a board decision on August 21, 2025.

Note 2. Accounting principles

Vicore's consolidated accounts have been prepared in accordance with the IFRS Accounting Standards issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) as well as the interpretations from the IFRS Interpretation Committee (IFRS IC) as adopted by the European Union (EU). Furthermore, the group also applies the Annual Accounts Act (1995: 1554) and the Swedish Financial Reporting Board's recommendation RFR 1 "Supplementary Accounting Rules for Groups". Relevant accounting and valuation principles can be found on pages 35-36 of the 2024 Annual Report. In addition, the accounting principles for financial assets and liabilities are presented below.

The interim report has been prepared in accordance with IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting. The parent company applies the Annual Accounts Act and RFR 2 Accounting for Legal Entities.

Disclosures in accordance with IAS 34.16A are provided both in the notes and throughout in the interim report.

Vicore applies ESMA:s (European Securities and Markets Authority) guidelines on alternative performance measures.

As of January 1, 2025, the Parent Company applies IFRS 9 Financial Instruments in full, in accordance with RFR 2 Accounting for Legal Entities. The accounting policy is consistent with that applied in the group. Previously, the Parent Company applied the acquisition cost method under the Swedish Annual Accounts Act. The change has not had any material impact on the reported amounts, and therefore comparative figures have not been restated. The accounting principles and calculation methods, with the exception of the changes described above, are unchanged from those applied in the Annual Report for the financial year January 1 - December 31, 2024.

Financial assets and liabilities

A financial asset or financial liability is recognized in the balance sheet when the group becomes a party according to the instrument's contractual terms. A financial asset is removed from the balance sheet when the rights in the agreement are realized, expire or when the group loses control over them. The same applies to a part of a financial asset. A financial liability is removed from the balance sheet when the obligation in the agreement is fulfilled or otherwise extinguished. The same applies to a part of a financial debt.

Acquisitions and divestments of financial assets are reported on the trade date. The trade date constitutes the day when the company undertakes to acquire or divest the asset.

Financial instruments are classified on initial recognition, including on the basis of what purpose the instrument was acquired and managed. This classification determines the valuation of the instruments.

Classification and valuation of financial assets

The classification of financial assets that are debt instruments, is based on the group's business model for managing the asset and the nature of the asset's contractual cash flows.

Assets are classified according to:

- Amortized cost
- Fair value through profit or loss, or
- Fair value through other comprehensive income

The group's financial assets that are classified at amortized cost include accounts receivable, certain other receivables, short-term investments, and cash and cash equivalents. Financial assets classified at amortised cost are initially measured at fair value with the addition of transaction costs. After initial recognition, the assets are valued at amortized cost after a deduction of a loss reserve for expected credit losses. Assets classified at amortized cost are held according to the business model to collect contractual cash flows, which are solely payments of principal and interest on the outstanding principal amount.

The group's financial assets that are classified at fair value through profit or loss relate to holdings in listed and non-listed shares.

Impairment of financial assets

The group's impairment model is based on expected credit losses, and takes into account prospective information. A loss reserve is made when there is an exposure to credit risk, usually at initial recognition for an asset or receivable.

Classification and valuation of financial liabilities

The group's financial liabilities consist of accounts payable and other current liabilities, which are all classified at amortized cost. Financial liabilities recognized at amortized cost are initially measured at fair value including transaction costs. After the initial recognition, they are valued according to the effective interest method.

Note 3. Related-party transactions

Note 4. Risks and uncertainties in the group and the parent company

Operational risks

Vicore is engaged in research and development operations through its subsidiary Vicore Pharma AB. Research and development involve a significant inherent level of risk and is a capital-intensive process. The majority of initiated projects in the drug development industry will never reach market registration due to technical risks, including the risk of insufficient efficacy, intolerable side effects or manufacturing problems. Apart from the one-time payment related to the license agreement with Nippon Shinyaku, Vicore has not generated significant revenue. Vicore's expansion and development related to the development projects may be delayed and/or incur greater costs and capital need than expected. Delays can occur for various reasons, including difficulties in reaching agreements with clinics about participation in clinical studies under acceptable conditions, problems in identifying patients for studies, patients not completing a trial or not returning for follow-up, or other events outside Vicore's control.

Patents that the company has applied for may not be granted and granted patents may be challenged, leading to loss of patent protection. If competing pharmaceuticals capture market share or reach the market faster, or if competing research projects achieve better product profiles, the future value of the product portfolio may be lower than expected. Decisions from public authorities, including decisions related to approvals, reimbursement and price changes, may also negatively impact the operations.

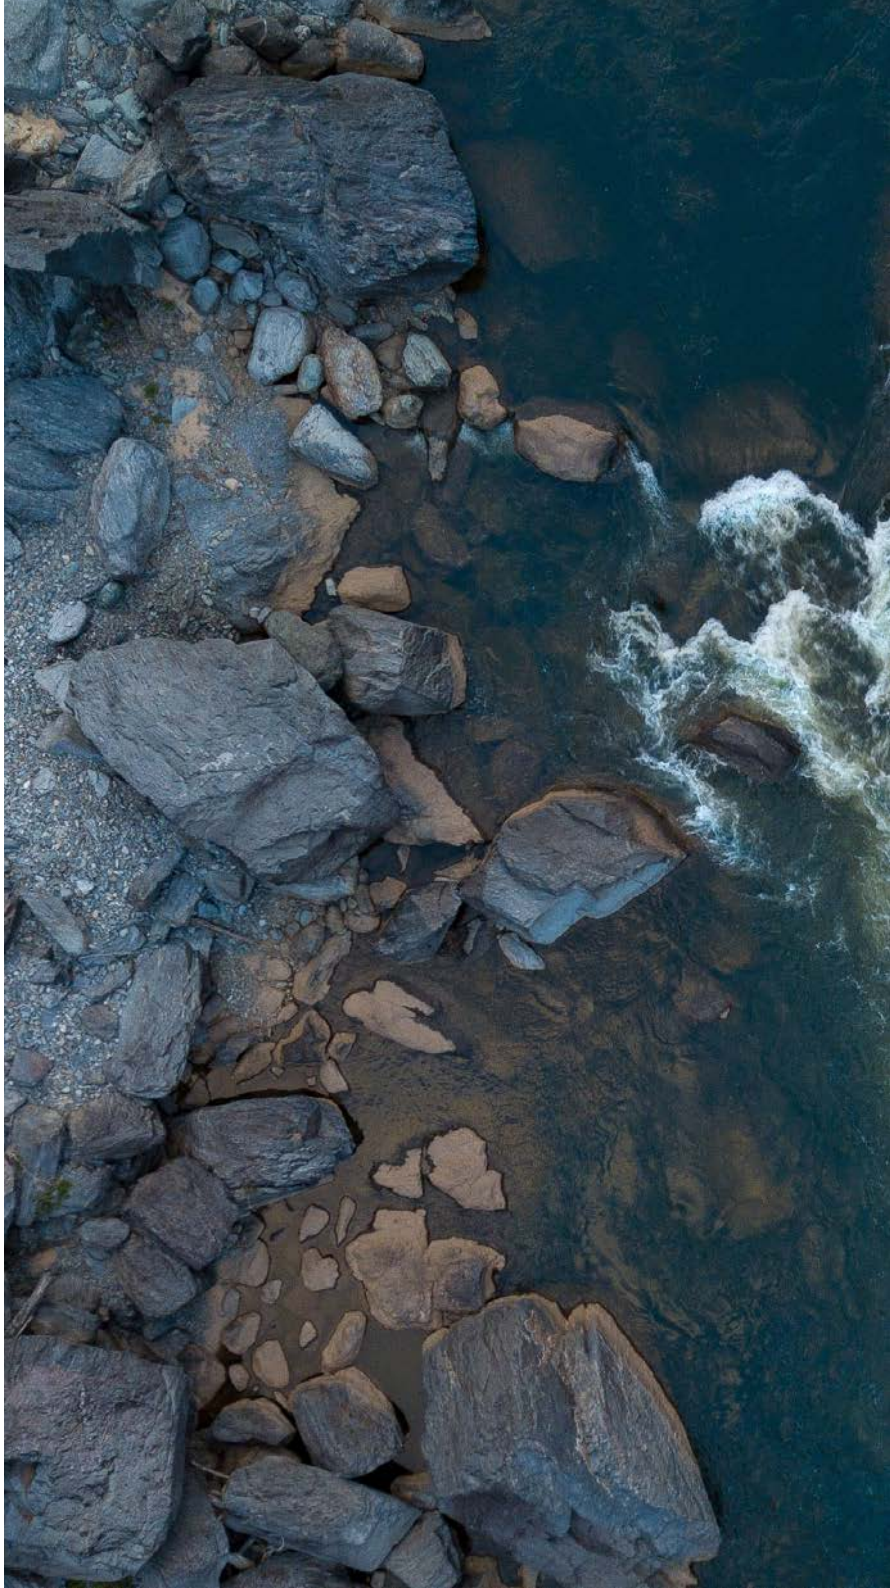
Financial risks

Through its operations, Vicore is exposed to various types of financial risk: credit risks, market risks (foreign exchange risk, interest rate risk and other price risks) and liquidity risks including refinancing risks. The main refinancing risk is not receiving additional investments from shareholders and other investors. The group's overall risk management objective focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and strives to minimize potentially unfavorable consequences for the group's financial position and performance.

For more information about operational and financial risks and other risk factors, see the Annual Report for 2024, available on the company's website, www.vicorepharma.com.

Note 5. Financial instruments

Vicore's financial assets and liabilities comprise cash, cash equivalents, short-term investments, trade payables and accrued expenses. The fair value of all financial instruments is materially equal to their carrying amounts.



Note 6. Depreciation, amortization and impairment

Allocation by function

(SEK in thousands)	2025 Apr-Jun	2024 Apr-Jun	2025 Jan-Jun	2024 Jan-Jun	2024 Jan-Dec
Research and development expenses	0	839	0	1,679	2,242
Total	0	839	0	1,679	2,242

Amortization attributable to research and development expenses mainly relates to the amortization of acquired intangible assets. This consists of a patent portfolio related to buloxibutid, whose main patent expired in the US in September 2024. Amortization began in September 2019 and is amortized over its estimated useful life, which is the remaining patent period.

Note 7. Share-based incentive programs

The purpose of share-based incentive programs is to promote the company's long-term interests by motivating and rewarding the company's senior management and other employees in line with the interests of the shareholders. Vicore currently has four active programs that include the management team, employees and board members.

At the Annual General Meeting on May 11, 2021, it was resolved to implement a new incentive programs: a maximum of 3,000,000 employee stock options to senior leaders and key persons ("Co-worker LTIP 2021").

At the Annual General Meeting on May 11, 2023, it was resolved to implement two new incentive programs: a maximum of 5,000,000 employee stock options to senior leaders and key persons ("Co-worker LTIP 2023"), and a maximum of 120,000 share awards to the board members ("Board LTIP 2023").

At the Annual General Meeting on May 7, 2024, it was resolved to implement a new incentive program: a maximum of 297,000 share awards to the board members ("Board LTIP 2024").

At the Annual General Meeting on May 6, 2025, it was resolved to implement two new incentive programs: a maximum of 7,000,000 employee stock options to senior leaders and key persons ("Co-worker LTIP 2025"), and a maximum of 1,070,000 restricted share units (RSUs) to the board members ("Board RSU 2025").For further information about these programs, see the 2024 Annual Report and the company's website, www.vicorepharma.com.

On September 10, 2024, Vicore's board decided to increase the company's share capital through a new issue of shares with preferential rights for Vicore's existing shareholders. The rights issue was completed on October 7, 2024. Therefore, the number of instruments, the exercise price and the number of shares each option or warrant in the company's incentive program entitles to have been recalculated. Initially, and according to the decision of the relevant Annual General Meeting, each vested instrument entitled the participant to one (1) share in Vicore. After the recalculation, each vested instrument will entitle the participant to 1.04 shares in Vicore.

Assuming full utilization of all granted employee stock options and share awards as of June 30, 2025, and taking into account the recalculation of the number of shares that each instrument gives the right to subscribe for as a result of the rights issue, this would correspond to maximum dilution of 3.4 percent. Considering non-granted employee stock options and warrants that may be used as hedge for social security contributions, the maximum dilution level as of June 30, 2025, amounts to 6.0 percent.

The table on the top right summarizes of the changes in existing incentive programs for the first six months 2025. The table on the bottom summarizes the total number of employee stock options and share awards granted as of June 30, 2025.

Key Performance Measures

Vicore applies the guidelines issued by ESMA (European Securities and Markets Authority) for alternative performance measures (APMs). APMs are financial measurements of historical or future earnings, financial position, financial results or cash flows that are not defined or specified in the applicable financial reporting rules but are central to understanding and evaluating Vicore's operations.

In this report, Vicore presents key performance measures, including two alternative performance measures not defined under IFRS, namely equity ratio and research and development expenses/operating expenses. The company believes these key performance measures are useful to readers of the financial reports as a complement to other key performance measures, as they enable a better evaluation of the company's financial trends. These alternative performance measures should not be viewed in isolation or be considered replacements for the performance indicators prepared in accordance with IFRS. In addition, such performance measures, as the company has defined them, should not be compared with other performance measures with similar names used by other companies. This is because the above-mentioned performance measures are not always defined in the same manner, and other companies may calculate them differently.
