

Norwegian insurance company Fremtind selects Cary Group as its supplier

Fremtind, Norway's third-largest insurance company, has selected Cary Group's Norwegian vehicle glass business, Cary Bilglass, as one of its strategic partners for vehicle glass repair. Fremtind operates on the Norwegian consumer market through its two brands Sparebank 1 and DNB.

"We are very proud that Fremtind has chosen our Norwegian company Cary Bilglass to be one of their two strategic partners for insurance cases involving vehicle glass repair. One of the main reasons why Fremtind chose Cary Bilglass was the strong customer offering, which includes digital booking channels for achieving the highest possible level of customer satisfaction. The Net Promoter Score of Cary Bilglass of over 90% was also a key factor. We look forward to creating positive customer experiences together with Fremtind," says Anders Jensen, CEO, Cary Group.

The agreement, which runs for three years, will see Fremtind transfer repair volumes to Cary Bilglass as one of its two partners. In addition to a high Net Promoter Score, a strong sustainable offering was important, which Cary Group is able to demonstrate through transparent reporting of its carbon footprint and continuous efforts to reduce its climate impact.
