

CMS APPROVES NTAP FOR CERAMENT® G IN OPEN FRACTURES, PROVIDING ADDITIONAL HOSPITAL REIMBURSEMENT STARTING OCTOBER 1, 2025

BONESUPPORT™, an emerging leader in orthobiologics for the management of bone injuries, today announces that the U.S. Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS), the federal agency administering the nation's largest public health insurance programs, has approved CERAMENT G for a New Technology Add-On Payment (NTAP) for the treatment of open fractures, effective October 1, 2025.

Granted under the alternative pathway for FDA-designated Breakthrough Devices with marketing authorization, this NTAP approval will enable hospitals to receive up to $5,687.50 per case in additional reimbursement when requirements are met.
