

Creturner Group AB acquires Zonderacom

Creturner acquires Zonderacom, an analysis and data processing company with sales of approximately SEK 10 million and stable sales and profitability.

Creturner acquires Zonderacom, an analysis and data processing company with sales of approximately SEK 10 million and stable sales and profitability. The business will be integrated as a subsidiary in the group. Synergies with Creturners AI expertise will enable the business to develop and grow.

The transaction value is approximately SEK 6.7 million, including the assumption of liabilities of approximately SEK 4.7 million, where the direct purchase price of SEK 2 million consists of newly issued shares in Creturner valued at WVAP 0.15 öre/share.

The number of shares in Creturner will thus increase by 13,333,334, resulting in a dilution of the existing share capital of 57,641,501 shares to the new number of 70,974,835 shares, corresponding to just under 19% after dilution and 23% before dilution. The seller of the business is Hubbster Group AB and the transaction will be completed immediately.

The Board of Directors of Creturner Group AB is exercising its mandate to issue shares in order to promote the company's development. Specific information on when the shares have been registered with the Swedish Companies Registration Office will be announced in a press release.

Contact details

Creturner Group AB is a group with two business areas in environmental technology.

The digital part is a technical computing business that is expanding to strengthen its long-term potential and create a presence in the fast-growing market for high-performance computing (HPC) capacity.

The environmental part offers corporate customers an efficient and permanent method to offset their activities. The method is based on BCR (Biochar Carbon Removal), which involves converting residual biomass into the element carbon and storing it to reduce the amount of carbon dioxide in the atmosphere.

Creturner is listed on NGM Nordic SME in Stockholm and on the Stuttgart Stock Exchange in Germany.
