Invitation to NYORDA AB's Q3 2026 report presentation

NYORDA AB will publish its interim report for January–September 2026 on 3 November 2026 and invites investors, analysts and media to a presentation of the results.

The presentation will cover NYORDA's financial performance in the third quarter, including revenue development, profitability and the contribution of its specialist businesses. Management will also discuss progress against the group's strategy, key developments across the portfolio and priorities for the remainder of 2026 and what's to come in 2027.

Investors will hear more about how NYORDA is developing its established affiliate and partner marketing business alongside growth opportunities in influencer marketing, app marketing, retail media and AI-driven search visibility.

The presentation will be held in English and followed by a Q&A session.
