Administrative and management bodies

The administration and operations of Incap Group are in the responsibility of the parent company Incap Corporation's administrative bodies. The highest decision-making body is the shareholders in the General Meeting. The management is the responsibility of the Board of Directors and the President and CEO. The Board of Directors aims at ensuring that Incap follows the principles of good corporate governance.

The Group's line operations are in the responsibility of the President and CEO, assisted by the Group Management Team. Incap reports its business operations as one entity.

General Meeting

Incap Corporation's highest decision-making body is the General Meeting of shareholders, which at the invitation of the Board, convenes once a year in an Annual General Meeting. The Annual General Meeting is held within six months of the end of the financial period, generally in April. An Extraordinary General Meeting is arranged on request of shareholders, when the shareholders demanding the handling of a given matter hold no less than 10 per cent of the total number of the company's shares.

The tasks within the decision-making power of the General Meeting are defined in the Companies Act and Incap's Articles of Association. The most important matters to be resolved at the General Meeting include amending the Articles of Association, raising the share capital, approving the financial statements, adopting the profit and loss account and balance sheet, deciding on the payment of dividends, confirming the number of members on the Board of Directors, and electing the members of the Board and the Auditors.

The company announces the agenda for the General Meeting in a Notice of Meeting that is published as a stock exchange release and on the company's website at least 21 days prior to the General Meeting. At the same time, the company publishes the documents that will be presented to the General Meeting, the proposals of the Board or of another authorised body, the total number of shares and votes on the date of the notice, as well as possible items that have been included in the agenda without any proposal for a decision to be made. The information is available on the company's website at www.incapcorp.com at least until the end of the General Meeting.

In the Notice of Meeting, the proposals for the composition and the remuneration of the Board of Directors as well as for the auditors are published, provided that the shareholders who have given the proposals are holding at least 10 per cent of the votes conferred by the shares in the company, and provided that the candidates have given their consent to being elected, and provided that the company has received the information in good time so that the proposals can be included in the Notice of Meeting. Corresponding proposals given by shareholders with at least 10 per cent of the votes after the publication of the Notice of Meeting are disclosed separately. The personal information of the candidates is published on the company's website.

The company will disclose on its website the date by which a shareholder must notify the company's Board of Directors of an issue that he/she demands to be addressed at the Annual General Meeting. The date will be published by the end of the financial period preceding the Annual General Meeting.

The General Meeting is organised in a way that promotes, with the available reasonable means, the shareholders to participate in the meeting and to exercise their ownership rights effectively.

Present at the General Meeting are the President and CEO, the Chairman of the Board of Directors and all the members of the Board of Directors. Persons proposed to the Board will participate in the General Meeting that decides on their election. Also, the Auditor is present in the meeting.

The minutes of the General Meeting with results of the voting as well as the appendices to the minutes relating to the decisions of the General Meeting will be published on the company's website within two weeks after the General Meeting. Documents of the General Meeting will be kept on the company's website for a period of at least five years from the General Meeting in question.

Incap Corporation's Articles of Association do not contain redemption clauses, and the company is not aware of shareholder agreements or agreements restricting the transfer of the company's shares.

In 2022, the Annual General Meeting was held on 29 April in Helsinki. A total of 42 (2021: 7) shareholders participated, representing a total of 41.1 per cent (2021: 36.9) of the company's shares and votes. The General Meeting adopted the financial statements for the financial period ended 31 December 2021. It was noted that the profit of the financial period was EUR 6,877,283.91. It was noted that the Board of Directors of Incap Corporation had proposed that the General Meeting authorise the Board of Directors to decide on a distribution of dividend of a maximum of EUR 0.80 per share from the profits in accordance with the adopted financial statements of the financial year 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2021, to be distributed in one or several instalments at a later stage based on the Board of Director's assessment. If the General Meeting approves the Board's proposal concerning the share issue without payment in accordance with section 16, the total amount of dividend will be divided between one current and four new shares, so that the total maximum amount of dividend is EUR 0.16 per share. The authorisation shall be valid until the commencement of the next Annual General Meeting.

The Annual General Meeting held on 29 April 2022 authorised the Board of Directors to decide to issue a maximum of 584,932 new shares either against payment or without payment and issuing on other special rights entitling to new shares as described in more detail in the resolutions of the General Meeting. The General Meeting also resolved on the company's auditor, members of the Board of Directors and their remuneration.

Board of Directors

The administration of Incap Corporation and the due arrangement of its operations are attended to by the Board of Directors. The duty of the Board of Directors is to promote the best interest of the company and all its shareholders. The Annual General Meeting determines the number of members in the Board of Directors and elects the members of the Board. The proposal for the composition of the Board of Directors is prepared by the Board of Directors. Under the Articles of Association, the Board of Directors shall have from three to seven ordinary members. The term of office for members of the Board of Directors is one year, and it commences from the date of the General Meeting at which they are elected and ends at the close of the next Annual General Meeting. Directors can be re-elected.

When the number of Board members and the composition of the Board are decided, the diversity of the Board of Directors, the requirements set by the company's operations and the present development stage of the company shall be taken into consideration with the target to ensure an efficient management of the Board's tasks. A person to be elected to the Board shall have the qualifications required by the duties and the possibility to devote enough time to attending to the duties. To ensure the diversity of the Board of Directors, the Board of Directors will consider the age, gender, education, and experience of the candidates when preparing the proposal for the composition of the Board of Directors.

Incap complies with the diversity principles described in the Corporate Governance Code. According to the principles, both genders should be represented in the Board, and the company aims for a properly balanced gender distribution. In the company's Board, both genders are represented, and the mix of diverse financial, technical and international expertise supports the diversity of the Board of Directors. To achieve this goal, the company searches for candidates from both genders as members of the Board and pays special attention to this goal when evaluating candidates.

When electing Board members, it is taken into consideration that the majority of them must be independent of the company. In addition, at least two of the members representing this majority must also be independent of significant shareholders in the company. The Board evaluates the independence of the members and informs who are independent of the company and who are independent of significant shareholders. For the evaluation of a member's qualifications and independence, a member shall provide adequate information to the Board and inform about possible changes in the information.

New members of the Board of Directors are introduced to the company's operations. The President and CEO will ensure that all Board members have access to sufficient information on the company's operations, operating environment, and financial position.

The Board of Directors has drawn up written rules of procedure for its work, describing the major tasks, operating principles, and decision-making procedures of the Board. The Board of Directors meets as required and it has a quorum when at least half of the members are present. of the Board has the decisive vote. The Board will elect the Chairman among its members.

The Board of Directors draws up an action plan and annual calendar for the period between Annual General Meetings. The plan includes among others the meeting schedule and the regular topics of the agenda.
