Change to Castellum's Executive Management

As part of Castellum's previously announced organisational change, Anna-Karin Nyman is leaving her role as Communications Director and stepping down from Executive Management to take up the position of Business Area Manager in Stockholm.

In her new role, Anna-Karin Nyman will have full profit and loss responsibilitybe for a property portfolio of approximately SEK 20 billion in Stockholm. The role of Communications Director will no longer be part of Castellum's Executive Management.

– I was pleased when Anna-Karin told me that she wanted to move into property management. She has recently completed her Executive MBA and now has the opportunity to put her knowledge to use in a new role. It's great when employees want to develop and take on new challenges, says Pål Ahlsén, CEO of Castellum AB.

The change takes effect on 1 December 2026.
