

Roboquest releases the ‘Dead Cells Update’, with new quests, weapon and more – out now!

Roboquest, the fast-paced FPS roguelite from RyseUp Studios that continues to captivate players worldwide, has just released the ‘Dead Cells Update’ in collaboration with Motion Twin and their game Dead Cells. The ‘Dead Cells Update’ is available now on Steam, Xbox and Epic Games Store!

In collaboration with French independent studio Motion Twin, RyseUp is releasing a themed collaborative update based on their hit game “Dead Cells”. The update contains new quests, NPCs as well as a new weapon (the Panchaku). The update also adds a fancy new red scarf, famously worn by “Dead Cells” protagonist The Prisoner.

For more information, please contact;

Gustav Nisser, Head of Commercial, Starbreeze Entertainment

E-mail: 3PP@starbreeze.com

Phone: +46(0)8-209 208

About RyseUp

RyseUp Studios is an independent game studio founded in 2014 in Lyon, France, composed of 20 passionate developers, artists and friends. Our aim is to create innovative IPs and gaming experiences that entertain and inspire players everywhere.

About Roboquest

Roboquest is a fast-paced FPS roguelite set in a vivid, futuristic world. Team up with friends or go solo to blast your way through hordes of enemies, upgrade your weapons, and discover hidden secrets. Developed by RyseUp Studios, Roboquest offers an adrenaline-fueled experience that keeps players coming back for more.

About Starbreeze

Starbreeze is an independent developer, creator, publisher and distributor of PC and console targeting the global market, with studios in Stockholm, Barcelona, Paris and London. Housing the smash hit IP PAYDAY, Starbreeze develops games based on proprietary and third-party rights, both in-house and in partnership with external game developers. Starbreeze shares are listed on Nasdaq Stockholm. For more information, please visit www.starbreeze.com.

Image Attachments

Keyart DeadCell Logo

Attachments

240814 Roboquest Dead Cells 2