

KEYTO Group strengthens its service offering in Sweden as Städax Fönsterputs joins the Group

KEYTO Group continues its growth journey and further strengthens its window cleaning offering in Sweden through the partnership with Städax Fönsterputs, a well-established company specialising in window cleaning.

Founded in Helsingborg, Städax Fönsterputs has built a strong reputation for delivering high-quality and sustainable window cleaning services to private households, companies, and public institutions. The company operates across southern and central Sweden, including Skåne, Halland, Västra Götaland, Värmland, Gotland and Stockholm, and is recognised for its "Svanenmärkt" (Nordic Swan Ecolabelled) window cleaning methods.

"Städax Fönsterputs is a great example of a company that combines professionalism, customer focus and sustainability. Their strong local presence and service mindset make them a perfect fit in our group" says Magnus Agervald, CEO of KEYTO Group.

The partnership with Städax Fönsterputs broadens KEYTO Group's offering within the window cleaning segment and strengthens its position as the leading, tech-enabled one-stop destination within home services.

"We are proud to become part of KEYTO Group and look forward to continuing our journey together. With shared ambitions for quality and growth, we see great opportunities ahead. We truly become stronger together" says Joel Nygren, CEO of Städax Fönsterputs.

Employees and customers of Städax Fönsterputs are warmly welcomed into the KEYTO family.
