

Envipco secures strategic win with Statiegeld Nederland

Amersfoort, 7 August 2025 – Envipco Holding N.V. ("Envipco" or "the Company"), a leading global provider of recycling systems and Reverse Vending Machine (RVM) technology, has secured a frame agreement with the Dutch deposit management operator (DMO) Statiegeld Nederland for delivery of RVM's for out of home locations across the Netherlands. The main focus under the agreement is to deploy Quantum bulk collection systems. The agreement runs to end of 2026 with an option for extension and includes 8 year service contracts on all deliveries. The first orders for delivery have been received.

"We are proud to be selected as a preferred supplier of bulk collection systems in the Netherlands to help Statiegeld Nederland reach its recovery target of 90%. Envipco's Quantum has already been in the Dutch market for more than a year, has posted stellar performance and rave consumer and public reviews and proven to be an efficient and consumer friendly complement to in-store RVMs" says Chief Commercial Officer – Europe & Asia Fons Buurman.

"Envipco has revolutionized Deposit Return Systems (DRS) with its market leading bulk collection system Quantum in several markets. Envipco is especially proud of the vote of confidence Statiegeld Nederland has shown through this agreement, and we look forward to helping drive the recovery rates of empty beverage containers to and above the target rate through a broad network of Quantums across the country" says Group CEO Simon Bolton.
